Education Holds The Gifts

The Ex Libris will show through pictures how "Education holds the gifts and we the keys. Classrooms, friends, activities, and accomplishments all presents many gifts. Students must use their God-given talents and their own efforts to profit from the gifts. In future years these gifts may be used as keys to unlock all the opportunities the world holds for an educated person.

Smiles and high spirits for the Regional

Gifts Of Friendship Between

C.C. dons festive appearances and Christmas spirit.

Students and faculty at Clinton Central have a remarkably friendly relationship. When a student graduates, he misses not only his fellow students, but also the teachers. Many of our teachers have given us gifts of knowledge and wisdom that will influence the rest of our lives.

"But it was even thou, my companion, my guide, and mine own familiar friend."

"If I could get my band together. . . ."

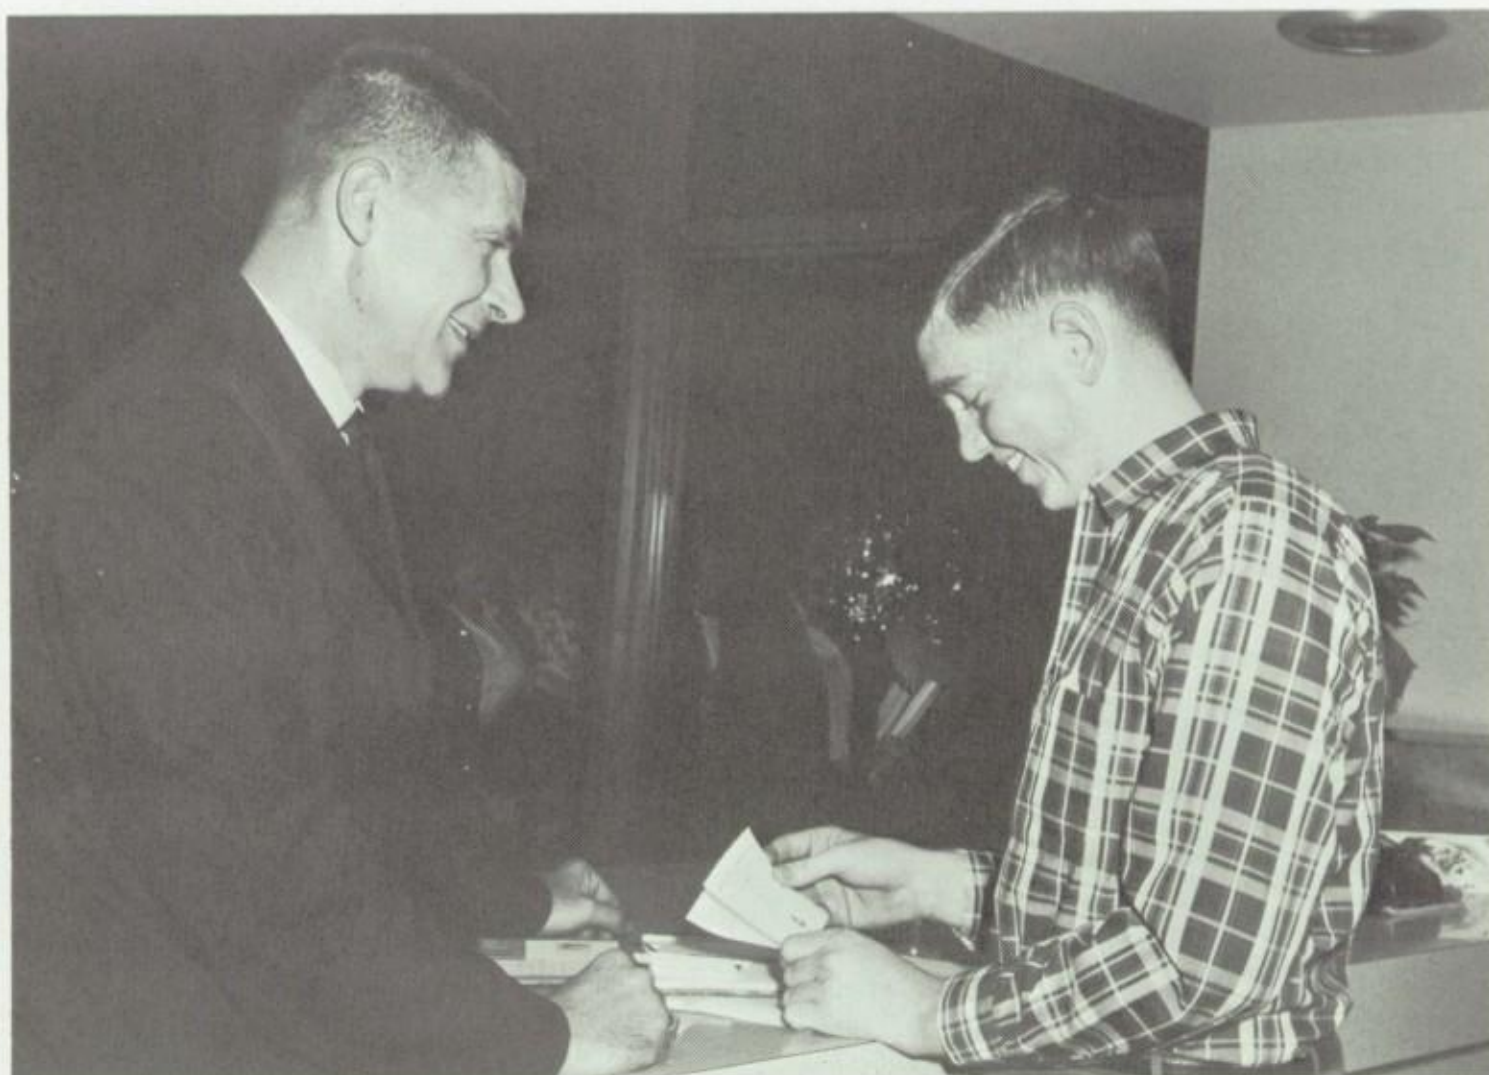

Students And Faculty

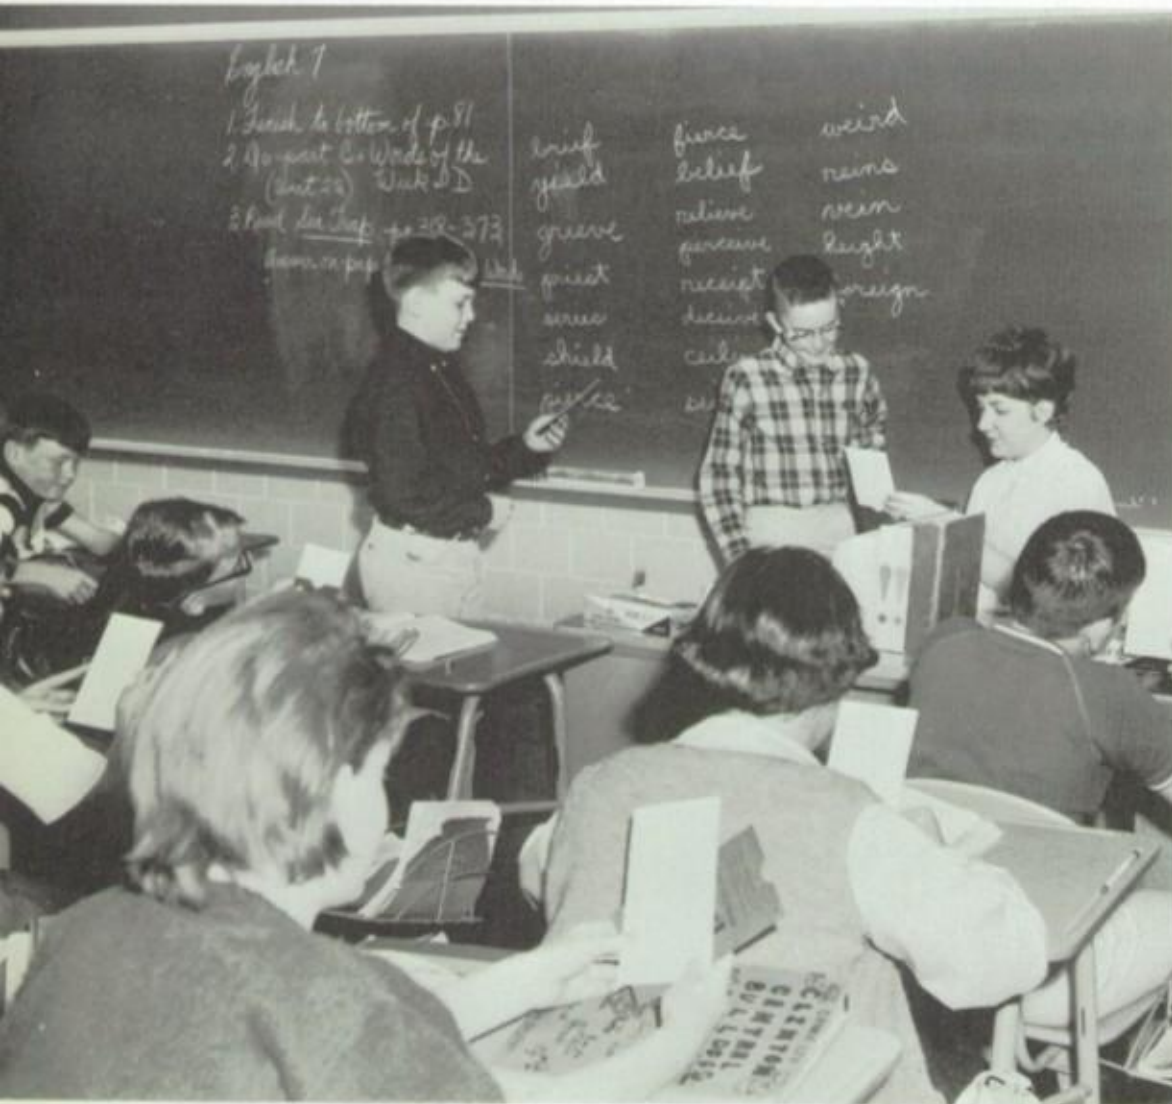

"All right, you clown!"

"I wonder what they put in this coffee."

Mr. Clark consults his Chief Adviser.

"Listen! You'll need this about Friday!"

Learning Begins

Clinton Central is furnished with many attractive and comfortable classrooms. These make learning more enjoyable and easier. Students have access to adequate facilities that make education more meaningful. The different departments give every student a chance to exercise his own interests and abilities. In these classrooms we are given many valuable gifts that will become keys in the future years to unlock many more hidden treasures.

A dedicated faculty, interested in the individual as well as subject matter, serves as a focal point for the instructional program.

"Memorize this map for tomorrow."

Peggy Clark and Jay Stowers—"Jay, this is the wrong problem."

Knowledge Is Power

Reading is the key to knowledge. A person unable to read is destined to a life of ignorance. Students at Clinton Central have excellent opportunities to advance their interests in reading. In our beautiful, well-equipped library, students can work on research projects and also read for their own enjoyment.

In the developmental reading department shown below, pupils increase their reading capacity.

To Mold Lives And Futures

Miss Colby aids in the search for knowledge.

Activities - The Spice

"Tweet! This way, gang."

Poor girls' chorus line.

"Touchdown!"

Of High School

All education does not come from the classroom. The extracurricular life of the high school helps to mold the students into well-rounded personalities. Students gain experience in working on committees, co-operating to reach final goals. Activities develop leadership and hidden talents. Each student can join an activity pertaining to his own special interests. Extracurricular activities furnish many gifts and memories of hard work and fun.

"Mmmmm, That tastes good."

"Is this money sterilized?"

"I now pronounce you . . ."

"Wait till Rucker finds out it's loaded."

Accomplishments -

Gifts From Hard Work

Girls' and Boys' State—Steve Marshall, alt.; Norman Smith, rep.; Patty Kingery, alt.; Pam Meyer, rep.

All people strive for recognition and to accomplish something in life. Clinton Central has gifted students that excell in many different fields. They have been awarded recognition for scholarship, leadership, patriotism, athletics, cheerleading, musical talent, and artistic ability. There are many ways to obtain awards, but the most rewarding way is by diligent, constant hard work.

C. C.'s Second Victorious Sectional Team

FACULTY AND STUDENTS

The faculty of Clinton Central presents a varied program of educational opportunities for the students to apply toward their specific goals in life. The co-operation and friendly atmosphere between students and faculty are conducive to learning.

Administration

Richard W. Falls, Superintendent, coordinates the five schools of the Clinton Central School Corporation.

Mary McCain, Secretary to the Superintendent, efficiently does the detailed bookwork necessary to the school corporation.

Marjorie Gossard runs the bookstore, sells the lunch tickets, and works in the Superintendent's office.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

Activities and organizations play a big role in the life of Clinton Central. It is important to coordinate a person's social life as well as his mind and physical abilities.

Activities and organizations furnish many memories of fun and experiences that are very valuable to any student.

Clinton Central's seventh annual Homecoming parade was led by the senior banner. Students spent many hours working on the colorful banners and floats that were presented to the public on October 8th.

The climax of the Homecoming parade was the crowning of Miss Linda Anderson as Homecoming queen.

Fledgling Freshmen Sunshiners enjoy the party.

Attentiveness is a virtue of Sunshiners.

Sunshine spreads throughout the school.

A ROYAL MOMENT

Queen Miriam Dow is crowned by Jerry Wyrick as members of her court look on. Attendants are Gale Lamberson, Suzanne Swinford, Renee Wilson, Charlotte Avery and Kathleen Ristow. They are escorted by Paul Bowman, David Milligan, Danny Robertson, David Miller, Jerry Barnett, Jan Rule and Mack Paris.

The Pep Club reflects a tense moment in the game.

The music department presented its annual Christmas program in the gymnasium. The band played several numbers and the Choral-Aires sang around the Christmas tree.

Sept. 3—H

CLINTON CENTRAL 13—EAST TIPP 14

Central owned eight first downs to Tipp's four, and 179 yards of rush-gained turf to Tipp's 73, but were unable to win. In the second quarter, Barnett plunged over the line to give Central six points. A 35-yard pass play set up six more points, making it Central 13, Tipp 14.

Sept. 10—H

CLINTON CENTRAL 0—FRANKFORT 22

Central was unable to move the pigskin when they obtained it, but Frankfort could. Near the game's end, Central was making its most determined scoring bid. In a losing strife, Barnett carried 19 times for 56 yards to lead all rushers.

Sept. 17—T

CLINTON CENTRAL 0—CLINTON PRAIRIE 6

Northrop intercepted a Prairie pass to begin Central's most serious offense. The offense stalled, Grider punted, and Central's end Davis recovered the fumbled ball. Every time Central obtained the ball they were held for downs.

Sept. 24—H

CLINTON CENTRAL 25—HAMILTON HEIGHTS 20

Central was heavily outweighed, but not out-played. Bowman blocked a Hamilton punt, M. Catron recovered and Barnett and Perkins went the rest of the way. Barnett scored twice after runs of 45 and 23 yards and Northrop intercepted a pass and ran 27 yards for another.

Oct. 1—H

CLINTON CENTRAL 25—SHERIDAN 0

The alert Central defense limited the losers to 6 yards rushing. Northrop jaunted 38 yards for a TD in the second quarter, then scored again in the third. In the fourth quarter, Turner and Mitchell scored and Long recovered a fumble.

Oct. 8—T

CLINTON CENTRAL 0—DELPHI 40

Central was handicapped by previous injuries and was unable to end Delphi's 15 game winning streak. Garrison compiled 15 tackles and was the one bright spot for Central as the Oracles controlled the game.

Oct. 15—T

CLINTON CENTRAL 0—WESTERN 26

The Bulldogs were unable to score, although they played their hosts almost even in the second half. Garrison shone on offense and defense, making 15 tackles.

Oct. 20—H

CLINTON CENTRAL 16—CARROLL 6

In the third quarter, the Bulldogs recovered a Carroll fumble for a touchback to lead 2-0. Turner scored twice after runs of 38 and 43 yards. Hillis added both extra points.

Oct. 29—T

CLINTON CENTRAL 14—WESTFIELD 13

Most of the action took place in the fourth quarter. Turner and Barnett carried for a TD, Hillis intercepted a Westfield pass and Barnett ate up 25 yards for another touchdown. Turner made the important extra point.

As The Year Ends

As the year ends, and the students board the bus for the last time, the Ex Libris staff puts the finishing touches on the annual.

It is the staff's duty to preserve the memories of the high school year; we hope that when you leaf through this book in future years, the pictures will bring back fond remembrances of classes, friends, and teachers. This book may bring to mind the success of the play and concerts, the winning of the sectional, the transformation of the gym to a world of beauty on prom night, and many other activities of which you were a part.

The gifts of knowledge that we have gained this year through our classrooms, friends, activities, and accomplishments will serve as keys in the future to unlock a wonderful world of opportunities.

Work hard in your high school years and enjoy them to the fullest extent, for it has been said that those are the best years. During the high school years, we are carefree, happy, and ambitious.

Although this book is a symbol of the past, it may remind us to have hope and anticipate a rewarding future. "I do not fear tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday, and I love today."
